

Chronological Overview of the Lives of the Patriarchs

Copyright (c) 2008 by Frank W. Hardy, Ph.D.

Notes:

- | | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 Terah dies at 205 years of age (11:32). 2 Terah 70 when Abram is born (11:26). 3 Abram 75 when he leaves Haran (12:4). 4 Abram in Canaan 10 years before taking Hagar as a concubine (16:3). 5 Abram 90 when God first appears to him (19:1). 6 Abram 99 when he is circumcised (17:24). Now called Abraham. 7 Abraham 100 when Isaac is born (17:17; 21:25). 8 Sarah 90 when Isaac is born (17:17). 9 "Some time later" Abraham is tested in the matter of offering Isaac (22:1) 10 Abram lives a total of 175 years (25:7) 11 Sarai (Sarah) lives 127 years, dying two years after Terah (23:1). 12 Ishmael probably 13 or 14 when Isaac is born. | 13 Ishmael lives 137 years (25:17). 14 Isaac 35 when Terah dies. 15 Isaac 40 when he marries Rebekah (25:20). 16 Isaac 60 when Esau and Jacob are born (25:26). 17 Isaac lives 180 years (35:28). 18 Jacob and Esau both 15 when Abraham dies. 19 Esau 40 when he marries (26:34). 20 Jacob goes to Haran at some time after Esau marries. 21 Jacob serves Laban a total of 20 years (31:38, 41). 22 Jacob lives 130 years (47:9). 23 Isaac dies only 10 years earlier than Jacob. |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|